

Mr Balawant Joshi

He is presently the Managing Partner of ABPS Infrastructure Advisory. He has more than 14 years experience in energy sector in India. His experience stands from operation and maintenance of power system to financial modeling and valuation from utility to consulting, from technology to regulatory etc. Further he has worked in every component of value chain in power sector. As a project manager and lead advisor on several energy sector reforms. He has gained a comprehensive view of energy reform at the sector, utility and consumer levels. He has worked with regulatory commissions of several states to help develop transparent and efficient regulatory procedures. He is an electrical engineer with post graduate qualification in management and software.