

Dr Sathyajit Mathew

He is an Assistant Professor (Senior scale) and principal investigator of DADB project. He has his PHD in the field of Renewable Energy from IIT, Kharagpur. He has published many books, research papers and technical reports. His recent publication include “Wind Energy : Fundamentals, Resource Analysis and Economics” and “Advances in Wind Energy Conversion Technology” (under preparation). He has won many awards and honors which include Kerala Agricultural University Award for securing externally aided projects 2005, Kerala State Energy Conservation Commendation certificate -2004, Nehru Centenary British Fellowship, 1994 and Young Scientist Award -1992 from Department of Science Technology and Environment, the Got of Kerala in energy and industries.