

Shri K P Sukumaran

He is Adviser in the Ministry of Non Conventional Energy Sources, dealing with Grid Connected Wind and Biomass power projects. Prior to this, he was dealing with the program relating the recovery of Energy from urban and industrial wastes and National Project Director of the UNDP/GEF assisted program on Development of High rate Biomethanation Projects. Shri Sukumaran is with MNES since its inception in 1982 and was associated with all the components of the national Biogas Program in the Rural Energy Group, including the Research and Development projects, which was the major programme of the industry.